

TeenPact Four Day State Class: First Time Student Pre-Class Homework (ages 13-19)

Please bring two copies of your completed homework: one to turn in and one to reference throughout the week. Bring a third copy of your bill.

Note: Students attending a class in a state other than their own need to do the homework for the state where they are attending, not the state where they live. For example, if a student lives in Idaho but is attending the Washington class, they need to do the homework for Washington.

Note: Students attending a class in Nebraska should complete the homework packets found here. DO NOT complete the homework below if you are signing up for a Nebraska class.

1 Read Tim Echols' book, Real Citizenship.

- You can purchase a paper-back copy of the book online during the registration process or at teenpact.com/store. Call the TeenPact office for more information.

- Tip: Try breaking it up into 4 or 5 sections and setting aside some time each day for a week.

2 Send a letter to your STATE representative and STATE senator, thanking them for serving and telling them about one issue/idea you think is important in your state.

- Remember to check your grammar and spelling. Reference our Sample Letter (below) for formatting.
- In everything be respectful and address them with their proper titles (Representative, Senator).
- Mail them (no emails, please) at least 2 weeks before the class to ensure they arrive in time.
- Remember to pray for your senator and representative by name.
- Purpose: to experience how easy it is to communicate to your elected officials and to participate in the process of making your opinions known.

- Tip: Try asking questions about their personal beliefs on specific issues or why they became involved with the political arena.
- Tip: Remember to write your STATE senator and STATE representative, not federal.

3 Define the terms and thoroughly answer the questions on the Pre-Class Vocabulary list (see below).

- All students will be responsible for this information on quizzes throughout the week.
- Purpose: to be prepared for in-class discussions.

- Tip: Check multiple dictionaries to better understand any terms that you're confused about. Think about how you have understood the term or heard it used and how that may differ from the dictionary.
- Tip: Use complete sentences when defining each term.

4 Write a one-page bill on an issue important to you and relevant to your state. Please choose a serious topic for the first bill; you may write a second bill with a fun topic if you choose. (Our Sample Bill below shows a format to use.)

- Include at least three sections in your bill: a purpose, a section explaining the bill's goal and plan of action, and a section listing when the bill will become law. Check the Sample Bill to make sure that your format is correct.
- Please choose topics that are appropriate for the age and environment of the class.
- Purpose: to be presented before the TeenPact Legislature.

- Tip: Think outside the box about issues that will spark conversation between you and your peers. Be respectful and age appropriate.

5 Complete the State Political Fact Sheet (below) using resources on the Internet and in your local library.

- You may have to use several sources to get this information: Type <http://www.state.xx.us> (insert your state's abbreviation in place of xx) to log onto your state's official web site.
  - Project Vote Smart also has information on your elected officials.
- If you are completing the homework before January 1 it is possible that some government seats may have changed because of recent elections. It is better to wait and complete the Fact Sheet after you are sure that all elections are over and the current officials are serving in their respective roles.
- Purpose: to be informed regarding the current leaders and political trends in your state.

- Tip: Remember to complete the fact sheet according to your STATE government information, not federal.
- Tip: Don't be intimidated— all this project takes is a little patience! Make sure that all of your information is up to date.

6 Memorize 1 Timothy 2:1-3 and Romans 13:1-2 using a Bible translation of your choice.

- Be prepared to write them from memory when you come to class.
- Purpose: to begin the process of developing a biblical worldview on government and citizenship.

- Tip: Find creative ways to memorize these verses. Start early and practice often.

7 Read or watch your governor's most recent State of the State Address.

- You can usually find the speech on your governor's web site under "Press Releases" or "Speeches." In some cases you may have to call the governor's office and ask how to get a copy. If your governor was recently elected or hasn't given an address yet, use the last address available.
- Create a list using the worksheet (below) of the issues addressed (at least 3 or more) by the governor in his or her speech.
- Purpose: to know the current issues in your state, as defined by your current governor.

- Tip: Keep these questions in mind while you read — How does this affect your state? What does this tell you about your governor's priorities? What key issues didn't they address?

8 Complete the Bill Analysis Worksheet

- Find and browse the list of legislation from your STATE legislature's web site and print a bill of interest to you.
- Analyze this bill using the worksheet given (below).
- Purpose: to develop critical thinking skills regarding current issues and legislation.

**Worksheet compiled from David Barton's article "Analyzing Legislation".*

- Tip: Thoroughly answer every question on the worksheet. If a question is not relevant to the bill that you chose, explain why it does not apply.

---

9 Constitutional Analysis

- Read the first Five Articles of the United States Constitution, as well as the first Ten Amendments (the Bill of Rights).
- Choose three of the first Ten Amendments and write a paragraph of 3-5 sentences answering the questions listed in the Constitutional Analysis worksheet (below).

- Purpose: to better understand the Constitution.

- Tip: Have a dictionary on hand to look up words or terms that you don't understand.
