Student Homework

FIRST TIME STUDENTS

TEENPACT®
LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS

FOUR DAY STATE CLASS FIRST TIME STUDENT PRE-CLASS HOMEWORK

Students should bring two copies of their completed homework: one to turn in and one to reference throughout the week. They should bring three copies of their bill. We encourage you to refer to the homework checklist on page 7 when preparing your homework for class.

If you are attending a class in a state other than your own, you will need to do the homework for the state where you are attending, not the state where you live. For example, you live in Idaho but are attending the Washington class, you should do the homework for Washington.

NOTE FOR NEBRASKA STUDENTS

Students attending a class in Nebraska should complete the homework packets found at teenpact.com/homework. Do not complete the homework below if you are attending a Nebraska class.

1 Read Tim Echols' book, Real Citizenship.

- ★ You can purchase a copy of the book during the registration process or at teenpact.com/shop.
- ★ Purpose: To develop a biblical worldview of citizenship.

HOMework TIP

Try breaking it up into four or five sections and setting aside some time each day for a week.

2 Memorize 1 Timothy 2:1-3 and Romans 13:1-2 using the Bible translation of your choice.

- ★ Be prepared to write them from memory when you come to class.
- ★ Purpose: To begin the process of developing a biblical worldview on government and citizenship.

HOMework TIP

Find creative ways to memorize these verses. Start early and practice often.

3

Define the terms and thoroughly answer the questions on the Pre-Class Vocabulary list (page 8-13).

★ All students will be responsible for this information on quizzes throughout the week.

★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class discussions.

HOMEWORK TIP

Check multiple dictionaries to better understand any terms that seem confusing. Think about how you have previously understood the term or heard it used, and how that may differ from the dictionary. Use complete sentences when defining each term.

4

Complete the State Political Fact Sheet (page 14) using resources on the internet and in your local library.

★ You may have to use several sources to get this information:

★ Type www.state.xx.us (insert your state's abbreviation in place of xx) to log onto your state's official website.

★ Project Vote Smart (votesmart.org) also has information on your elected officials.

★ If you are completing the homework before January 1, it is possible that some government seats may have changed because of recent elections. It is better to wait and complete the Fact Sheet after you are sure that all elections are over and the current officials are serving in their respective roles.

★ Purpose: To be informed regarding the current leaders and political trends in your state.

HOMEWORK TIP

Remember to complete the fact sheet according to your STATE government information, not federal. Don't be intimidated—it just takes a little patience! Make sure all of your information is up to date.

5

Send a letter to your state representative/delegate/assemblyman and state senator (not federal), thanking them for serving and telling them about one issue or idea you think is important in your state.

- ★ Refer to the Sample Letter (page 15) when formatting your letter.
- ★ Need to know where to send the letter? Go to Project Vote Smart (votesmart.org) and search for your representative, senator, and/or delegate.
- ★ Remember to check your grammar and spelling.
- ★ In everything, be respectful and address them with their proper titles (Representative, Senator, Delegate, Assemblyman, etc.).
- ★ Mail the letters (no emails, please) at least two weeks before the class to ensure they arrive in time.
- ★ Remember to pray for your elected officials by name.
- ★ Purpose: To experience how easy it is to communicate to your elected officials and to participate in the process of making your opinions known.

HOMEWORK TIP

Try asking questions about their personal beliefs on specific issues or why they became involved with the political arena. Remember to write your state senator and state representative/delegate/assemblyman, not your federal officials.

6

Read or watch your governor's most recent State of the State Address. Create a list using the worksheet (page 16) of the issues addressed (at least three or more) by the governor in his or her speech.

- ★ You can usually find the speech on your governor's website under "Press Releases" or "Speeches." In some cases, you may have to call the governor's office and ask how to obtain a copy. If your governor was recently elected or hasn't given an address yet, use the last address available.
- ★ Purpose: To know the current issues in your state, as defined by your current governor.

HOMEWORK TIP

Keep these questions in mind while you read/watch the State of the State Address: How does this affect your state? What does this tell you about your governor's priorities? What key issues didn't they address?

7

Write a one-page bill on an issue important to you and relevant to your state.

- ★ Please choose a serious topic for the first bill. If you want to write an additional bill, you may write it on a serious or fun topic.
- ★ Refer to our Sample Bill for the correct format (page 17) when you're writing your bill.
- ★ Include at least five sections in your bill: explaining (1) the purpose, (2) the bill's goal, (3) the plan of action, (4) when the bill will become law, and (5) how the bill will be funded. Check the Sample Bill to make sure your format is correct.
- ★ Please choose topics which are appropriate for the age and environment of the class.
- ★ Purpose: To develop a better understanding of the legislative process.

HOMEWORK TIP

Think outside the box about issues that will spark conversation between you and your peers. Be respectful in your topic choice.

8

Complete the Bill Analysis Worksheet (pages 18-19).

- ★ Find and browse the list of legislation from your state legislature's website and print a bill of interest to you.
- ★ Analyze this bill using the worksheet given.
- ★ Purpose: To develop critical thinking skills regarding current issues and legislation.

HOMEWORK TIP

Thoroughly answer every question on the worksheet. If a question is not relevant to the bill that you chose, explain why it does not apply.

9

Constitutional Analysis (page 20).

- ★ Read the first Five Articles of the United States Constitution, as well as the first Ten Amendments (the Bill of Rights).
- ★ Choose three of the first Ten Amendments and answer the questions listed in the Constitutional Analysis worksheet in a three to five sentence paragraph.
- ★ Purpose: To better understand the Constitution.

HOMEWORK TIP

Have a dictionary on hand to look up words or terms that you don't understand.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

The following assignment will give students a better understanding of the Four Day State Class; however, it is not required.

10 Campaign Preparation

During the TeenPact week, we will hold class elections for governor and senator. Begin thinking about running, as it is a tremendous learning experience and a ton of fun! For those interested in running, we recommend that you:

- ★ Develop a campaign slogan.
- ★ Write a short speech on why you might make a good class governor or senator.
- ★ Think about a favorite Bible verse or message you can share with your fellow students.
- ★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class elections.

Completed Homework Checklist

Please bring these items to class on Monday:

- Two copies of your Pre-Class Vocabulary Worksheet
- Two copies of your State Political Fact Sheet
- Two copies of your letter to your state representative (for your district)
- Two copies of your letter to your state senator (for your district)
- Two copies of your State of the State Address Worksheet
- Three copies of your Bill
- Two copies of your Bill Analysis Worksheet
- Two copies of your Constitutional Analysis Worksheet
- One copy of your campaign preparation notes (optional)
