

Student Homework

2021 FOUR DAY ALUMNI HOMEWORK

Students should bring two copies of their completed homework: one to turn in and one to reference throughout the week. They should bring three copies of their bill. We encourage you to refer to the homework checklist on page 9 when preparing your homework for class.

If you are attending a class in a state other than your own, you will need to do the homework for the state where you are attending, not the state where you live. For example, you live in Idaho but are attending the Washington class, you should do the homework for Washington.

NOTE FOR NEBRASKA STUDENTS

Students attending a class in Nebraska should complete the homework packets made for the Nebrasks class, which can be found at teenpact.com/homework. Do not complete the homework below if you are attending a Nebraska class.

Review the vocabulary and questions from the Pre-Class Vocabulary List (pages 10-15).

- ★ All Students, First Time and Alumni, will be responsible for this information on quizzes throughout the week. Alumni are not required to turn in the vocabulary and definitions.
- ★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class discussions.

HOMEWORK TIP

If you still have your homework from your first time at the Four Day Class, feel free to reference that as you complete the Vocabulary List.

Complete the State Political Fact Sheet (page 16) using resources on the internet and in your local library.

- ★ You may have to use several sources to get this information:
 - ★ Visit teenpact.com/state-official-website to find your state's official website.
 - ★ Project Vote Smart (votesmart.org) also has information on your elected officials.
- ★ If you are completing the homework before January 1, it is possible that some government seats may have changed because of recent elections. It is better to wait and complete the Fact Sheet after you are sure that all elections are over and the current officials are serving in their respective roles.
- ★ Purpose: To be informed regarding the current leaders and political trends in your state.

HOMEWORK TIP

Remember to complete the fact sheet according to your STATE government information, not federal. Don't be intimidated—it just takes a little patience! Make sure all of your information is up to date.

Send a letter to your state Senator and state Representative/Delegate/Assembly-Member (state, not federal), thanking them for serving and telling them about one issue or idea you think is important in your state.

- ★ Refer to the Sample Letter (page 17) when formatting your letter.
- ★ Need to know where to send the letter? Go to Project Vote Smart (votesmart.org) and search for your state Senator and state Representative, Delegate, or Assemblymember.
- ★ Remember to check your grammar and spelling.
- ★ In everything, be respectful and address them with their proper titles (Representative, Senator, Delegate, Assemblyman, etc.).
- ★ Mail the letters at least two weeks before the class to ensure they arrive in time.
- ★ Take time to pray for your elected officials by name before sending your letter.
- ★ Purpose: To experience how easy it is to communicate to your elected officials and to participate in the process of making your opinions known.

HOMEWORK TIP

Consider asking questions about why they support a particular issue or what they hope to accomplish during their time in the legislature. Remember to write your state legislators, not federal.

Read or watch your Governor's most recent State of the State Address. Create a list using the worksheet (page 18) of the issues addressed (at least three or more) by the Governor in his or her speech.

- ★ You can usually find the speech on your Governor's website under "Press Releases" or "Speeches." In some cases, you may have to call the Governor's office and ask how to obtain a copy. If your Governor was recently elected or hasn't given an address yet, use the last address available.
- ★ Purpose: To know the current issues in your state, as defined by your current Governor.

HOMEWORK TIP

Keep these questions in mind while you read/watch the State of the State Address: How does this affect your state? What does this tell you about your Governor's priorities? What key issues didn't they address?

Write a one-page bill on an issue important to you and relevant to your state.

- ★ Please choose a serious topic for the first bill. If you want to write an additional bill, you may write it on a serious or fun topic.
- ★ Refer to our Sample Bill for the correct format (page 19) when you're writing your bill.
- ★ Include at least five sections in your bill explaining: (1) the purpose, (2) the bill's goal, (3) the plan of action, (4) when the bill will become law, and (5) how the bill will be funded. Check the Sample Bill to make sure your format is correct.
- ★ Please choose topics which are appropriate for the age and environment of the class.
- ★ Purpose: To develop a better understanding of the legislative process.

HOMEWORK TIP

Think outside the box about issues that will spark conversation between you and your peers. Be respectful and try to write your bill on a new topic that you haven't used before.

Alumni Track Preparation

Our nation's Founders ordained and established the Constitution for the United States of America, writing that a primary aim was to "secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity." (1) On December 15, 1791, a little more than three years after the Constitution was ratified, Virginia became the 10th state to approve the Bill of Rights, and so the first ten amendments were added to the Constitution. (2)

Foremost among the Bill of Rights was the First Amendment, which among other liberties, sought to protect the Freedom of Speech (and of the Press). Few liberties are more fundamental than the Freedom of Speech. Religious freedom is only protected insofar as Freedom of Speech (and of the Press) is protected. Voting and fair elections are only protected insofar as Freedom of Speech (and of the Press) is protected. People must be free to speak and free not to speak, free to express their opinion and free to express their disagreement of another's opinion. Freedom of Speech is truly essential to a free society.

Despite America's historic legacy of Freedom of Speech, this liberty is not always protected as it should be. Increased censorship, viewpoint discrimination, and the redefinition of hate speech are all current examples of where this liberty is under attack in our society. It is incumbent upon us, then, to learn to understand this liberty so that it may be protected for all people, for ourselves, and our posterity.

With our nation's Founders, "we hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." What will we do with the liberties our Creator has given us? How are we to protect these liberties and steward them well?

The following assignments will direct your pre-class study and prepare you for in-class sessions. Throughout the week you will dialogue with your Program Director and other Alumni Students about your research, participate in a survey to discover general public opinion on these issues, and discuss what opportunities and responsibilities you have been given with regard to your Freedom of Speech.

Write down the illustrations James uses for the tongue. Why is it so important for us to be wise with our words?

Governments and leaders are often opposed to Christianity. How should we respond when censored for speaking the truth in love?
- ★ Read Acts 16:16-40.

3. American Origin

Read the following documents and write out an answer to each of the questions below.

Identify the six freedoms articulated in the First Amendment. Why do you think this was prioritized as the First Amendment in the Bill of Rights?
- ★ Read and research the summary of Schenck v. United States and Brandenburg v. Ohio.

In 1919, the Supreme Court created a standard for regulating speech with creation of the clear and present danger test. 4. Essays (500 word minimum each)

Write one (1) essay about why the Freedom of Speech is an essential foundation for a free society that promotes and protects liberty and justice for all.

Write one (1) essay comparing and contrasting two of the following case studies. Describe whether or not you believe Freedom of Speech was appropriately or inappropriately protected or was otherwise compromised.

- ★ West Virginia Board of Education v. Barnette, 319 U.S. 624 (1943) - Freedom of speech includes the right: Not to speak (specifically, the right not to salute the flag.)
- ★ Tinker v. Des Moines, 393 U.S. 503 (1969) - Freedom of speech includes the right: Of students to wear black armbands to school to protest a war ("Students do not shed their constitutional rights at the schoolhouse gate.").
- ★ Texas v. Johnson, 491 U.S. 397 (1989); United States v. Eichman, 496 U.S. 310 (1990) - Freedom of speech includes the right: To engage in symbolic speech (e.g., burning the flag in protest).
- ★ United States v. O'Brien, 391 U.S. 367 (1968) - Freedom of speech does not include the right: To burn draft cards as an anti-war protest.
- ★ Hazelwood School District v. Kuhlmeier, 484 U.S. 260 (1988) - Freedom of speech does not include the right: To permit students to print articles in a school newspaper over the objections of the school administration.
- ★ Island Trees School District v. Pico (1982) - The Supreme Court ruled that officials could not remove books from school libraries because they disagreed with the content of the books' messages.
- ★ Watchtower Bible and Tract Society v. Stratton (2002) - City laws requiring permits for political advocates going door to door were unconstitutional because such a mandate would have a "chilling effect" on political communication.
- ★ Snyder v. Phelps (2011) - Family of a fallen soldier sues Westboro Baptist Church over protests at funeral of soldier. Church protests included signs with statements such as, "Thank God for dead soldiers." SCOTUS holds that the First Amendment protects protesters at a funeral from liability for intentionally inflicting emotional distress on the family of the deceased.
- ★ Board of Education of Westside Community Schools v. Mergens By and Through Mergens (1990) - Was Westside's prohibition against the formation of a Christian club consistent with the Establishment Clause, thereby rendering the Equal Access Act unconstitutional?
oyez.org/cases/1989/88-1597

- ★ Good News Club v. Milford Central School, 533 U.S. 98 (2001) - Did Milford Central School violate the First Amendment free speech rights of the Good News Club when it excluded the Club from meeting after hours at the school? If a violation occurred, was it justified by Milford's concern that permitting the Club's activities would violate the Establishment Clause?

HOMWORK NOTE

Print two copies of each essay. You will keep one copy of each essay for your own reference and will be required to turn in one copy of each essay for grading. You will not be required to submit anything related to the terms or research sections of the alumni homework.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

The following assignment will give Students a better understanding of the Four Day State Class and the fundamental ideas and strategies involved in the campaign process. While this assignment is not required, we do highly recommend that Students complete it in preparation for the class.

Campaign Preparation

During the TeenPact week, we will hold class-wide elections for Governor and Senator. Once elected, these officials will have the distinct honor of representing the Student body at graduation. Every Student, during the week, will participate in elections in some capacity: Candidate, Campaign Manager, Grassroots Activist, and Voter. With so many roles to participate in, we recommend that you:

- ★ Develop a campaign slogan - Your slogan should be memorable for the other Students. Think about your goal for the campaign. You can make your slogan quick and catchy, or a little more thought provoking. Your slogan will help the Students remember who you are and understand your campaign. Choose wisely!
- ★ Write a short speech on why you might make a good Governor or Senator to represent your fellow Students - During the class, you will have the opportunity to answer questions and convince the other Students why you would represent the class well as their Governor or Senator. Think of a few reasons to present to the class, and you'll be that much more prepared.
- ★ Think about a favorite Bible verse or message you can share with your fellow Students - This will help in preparation for your campaign, give clear reasons why you are running, and help Students connect with your candidacy.
- ★ Bring campaign supplies - Be creative with candy, signs, flyers, etc! Have fun thinking of ways to relate to your fellow Students who will be voting in the election.
- ★ Read about campaigning - Understanding what a campaign looks like will help you as you participate in campaigning throughout the week. Review some historical campaigns and basic principles that make them successful. If you plan to run for office, think of ways you can build a campaign team and share with them what you learn in your research.
- ★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class elections.
