2025 FOUR DAY ALUMNI HOMEWORK
NEBRASKA STUDENTS ONLY

2025 FOUR DAY ALUMNI HOMEWORK - NEBRASKA

Students should bring two copies of their completed homework: one to turn in and one to reference throughout the week. They should bring three copies of their bill. We encourage you to refer to the Homework Checklist on page 8 when preparing your homework for class.

If you are attending a class in a state other than your own, you will need to do the homework for the state where you are attending, not the state where you live. For example, if you live in Nebraska but are attending the Kansas State Class, you should do the homework for Kansas.

1

Review the vocabulary and questions from the Pre-Class Vocabulary List (pages 9-14).

- ★ All students will be responsible for this information on quizzes throughout the week. Alumni are not required to turn in the vocabulary and definitions.
- ★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class discussions.

HOMWORK TIP

If you still have your homework from your first time at the Four Day Class, feel free to reference that as you complete the Pre-Class Vocabulary List.

2

Complete the State Political Fact Sheet (page 15) using resources on the internet and in your local library.

- ★ You may have to use several sources to get this information:
 - ★ Visit teenpact.com/state-official-website to find your state's official website.
 - ★ Open States (openstates.org) also has information on your elected officials.
- ★ If you are completing the homework before January 1, it is possible that some government seats may have changed because of recent elections. It is better to wait and complete the fact sheet after you are sure that all elections are over and the current officials are serving in their respective roles.
- ★ Purpose: To be informed regarding the current leaders and political trends in your state.

HOMWORK TIP

Remember to complete the fact sheet according to your STATE government information, not federal. Don't be intimidated—it just takes a little patience! Make sure all of your information is up-to-date.

3

Send a letter to your state senator (not federal), thanking him/her for serving and telling him/her about one issue or idea you think is important in your state.

- ★ Refer to the Sample Letter (page 16) when formatting your letter.
- ★ Need to know where to send the letter? Go to Open States (openstates.org) and search for your state senator.
- ★ Remember to check your grammar and spelling.
- ★ In everything, be respectful and use the proper title of senator when addressing him/her.
- ★ Take time to pray for your senator by name before sending your letter.
- ★ Mail the letter at least two weeks before the class to ensure it arrives in time.
- ★ If preferred, it is also acceptable to send your letter with proper formatting via email.
- ★ Purpose: To experience how easy it is to communicate with your elected official and to participate in the legislative process by making your opinions known.

HOMEWORK TIP

Consider asking questions about why he/she supports a particular issue or what he/she hopes to accomplish during his/her time in the legislature. Remember to write your state senator, not federal.

4

Read or watch your governor's most recent State of the State Address. Create a list using the worksheet (page 17) of the issues addressed (three or more) by the governor in his/her speech.

- ★ You can usually find the speech on your governor's website under press releases or speeches. In some cases, you may have to call the governor's office and ask how to obtain a copy. If your governor was recently elected or hasn't given an address yet, use the last address available.
- ★ Purpose: To know the current issues in your state, as defined by your current governor

HOMEWORK TIP

Keep these questions in mind while you read/watch the State of the State Address: how does this affect your state? What does this tell you about your governor's priorities? What key issues did he/she not address?

5

Write a one-page bill on an issue important to you and relevant to your state.

- ★ Please choose a serious topic for your bill. If you want to write an additional bill, you may write it on a serious or fun topic.
- ★ Refer to our Sample Bill (page 18) for the correct format when writing your bill.
- ★ Include at least five sections in your bill:
 1. The title
 2. The purpose
 3. The plan of action
 4. When the bill will take effect after becoming law
 5. How the bill will be funded
- ★ Please choose topics which are appropriate for the age and environment of the class.
- ★ Purpose: To develop a better understanding of the legislative process.

HOMWORK TIP

Think outside the box about issues that will spark conversation between you and your peers. Be respectful and try to write your bill on a new topic that you haven't used before.

6

Complete the Forms of Government Fact Sheet (page 19).

- ★ Purpose: To prepare for in-class discussions about American government.

7

Complete the Constitutional Interpretations Analysis (page 20).

- ★ Purpose: To prepare for in-class discussions about the authority of the Constitution.

8

Alumni Track Preparation

Purpose: To help you better understand and value the principles of justice and liberty as identified in God's Word and our nation's founding documents. To accomplish this, you will study the history of the judicial branch and how judicial review has affected the balance of powers within the U.S. government. Through this, you will discover why protecting our unalienable rights is paramount to preserving liberty.

On June 21, 1788, the newly-drafted United States Constitution was ratified by its ninth state — New Hampshire — thereby meeting the necessary majority to become the supreme law of the land. Having experienced the unbridled authority of the British monarchy, the Founders envisioned a nation in which the power resides with the people, and fashioned a government to secure the God-given, unalienable rights of its citizens. To ensure this cause, they carefully crafted a system of separated powers, creating checks and balances between three distinct branches of government — legislative, executive, and judicial branches.

The judicial branch appeared, at the outset, to have the least constitutionally-protected right to participate in “checking” the remaining two branches. Then, in 1803, the U.S. Supreme Court accepted what is now remembered as a landmark case: Marbury v. Madison. As a major outcome of their ruling, Chief Justice John Marshall and his three colleagues set in precedent the process of Judicial Review where courts of law maintain the duty to determine the constitutionality of legislative and executive actions. In effect, this completed the circle of checks and balances within America's governmental structure. Fascinatingly, while many would conclude this to be the Court's highest priority and primary responsibility, it still technically resides outside the provisions of the Constitution itself.

By exercising this power, the judicial branch has changed the course of U.S. history. Hundreds of cases have been submitted for Judicial Review, resulting in a cascade of landmark decisions, setting precedent for decades to come. Whether the outcomes of these decisions are positive or negative, they have had a profound effect on the future of our country. For example, many voters during the 2016 Presidential election viewed Supreme Court appointments as key in determining their ballot. According to CNN and NBC exit polls, an average of seven out of ten people stated Supreme Court nominations were either the most important factor or an important factor in their voting decision. Indeed, President Trump's nominations have significantly impacted the landscape of the Judicial branch.

We are experiencing an ever-rising tension in our nation over the judicial branch of government and its attendant powers. In the last 50 years alone, the Supreme Court has made decisions on such important matters as civil rights, the definition of marriage, eminent domain, abortion, and more. Some argue that these decisions should have been legislated rather than ruled by unelected Justices. How has the judiciary's rise in power affected the United States? In what ways has it protected or failed to protect our unalienable rights? As Christians and U.S. citizens, what should be our response when these rights are infringed upon?

The following assignments will direct your pre-class study and prepare you for in-class sessions. Throughout the week you will dialogue with your Program Director and other Alumni Students about your research. You will participate in a survey to discover public opinion on these issues. Finally, you will explore why we need a judicial system that is dedicated to protecting the principles of liberty and justice for all.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

The following assignment will give you a better understanding of the Four Day State Class and the fundamental ideas and strategies involved in the campaign process. While this assignment is not required, we do highly recommend that you complete it in preparation for the class.

9

Campaign Preparation

During the TeenPact week, we will hold class-wide elections for governor and senator. Once elected, these officials will have the distinct honor of representing the student body at graduation. During the week, every student will participate in elections in some capacity: candidate, campaign manager, grassroots activist, and voter. With so many options for participation, we recommend that you:

- ★ Develop a campaign slogan. Your slogan should be memorable for the other students. Think about your goal for the campaign. You can make your slogan quick and catchy, or a little more thought provoking. Your slogan will help the students remember who you are and understand your campaign. Choose wisely!
- ★ Write a short speech on why you might make a good governor or senator to represent your fellow students. During the class, you will have the opportunity to answer questions and convince the other students why you would represent the class well as their governor or senator. Think of a few reasons to present to the class, and you'll be that much more prepared.
- ★ Think about a favorite Bible verse or message you can share with your fellow students. This will help in preparation for your campaign, give clear reasons for why you are running, and help students connect with your candidacy.
- ★ Bring campaign supplies. Be creative with candy, signs, flyers, etc! Have fun thinking of ways to relate to your fellow students who will be voting in the election.
- ★ Read about campaigning. Understanding what a campaign looks like will help you as you participate in campaigning throughout the week. Review some historical campaigns and basic principles that made them successful. If you plan to run for office, think of ways you can build a campaign team and share with them what you learn in your research.
- ★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class elections.
