Bonjour

In Hebrew, hallelujah is really two words in one: hallel-jah, or, Praise Yahweh! In the midst of mountains and valleys of life, what is our cry? As you walk through Bonjour, we pray you will daily discover the enduring hope that is found at the heart of hallelujah—the LORD!

Read the passages, respond to the questions, and use the remaining space to record your prayers and thoughts each day. Hey TeenPact Nation, my name is Micah Carr and I've been given the privilege to write a foreword to this 2019 Natcon bonjour, "Hallelujah." Reading through these powerful Scriptures has been a great encouragement and inspiration to me to go deeper in my praise of God. These verses reminded me of all the ways God has blessed me, showed me beautiful examples of praise in the Psalms, and made me long for the day when all the redeemed will worship as one body. I pray that you too are inspired to worship "in spirit and in truth."

God bless, Micah Carr

ABLESSED HALLELUJAH

My hope lives not because I am not a sinner, but because I am a sinner for whom Christ died; my trust is not that I am holy, but that being unholy, HE is my righteousness. My faith rests not upon what I am or shall be or feel or know, but in what Christ is, in what He has done, and in what He is now doing for me. Hallelujah!

A PERSEVERING TALLELUJAH

The best we can hope for in this life is a knothole peek at the shining realities ahead. Yet a glimpse is enough. It's enough to convince our hearts that whatever sufferings and sorrows currently assail us aren't worthy of comparison to that which waits over the horizon.
