

Student Homework

2027 FOUR DAY ALUMNI HOMEWORK

2027 FOUR DAY ALUMNI HOMEWORK

Students should bring two copies of their completed homework: one to turn in and one to reference throughout the week. They should bring three copies of their bill. We encourage you to refer to the Homework Checklist on page 9 when preparing your homework for class.

If you are attending a class in a state other than your own, you will need to do the homework for the state where you are attending, not the state where you live. For example, if you live in Idaho but are attending the Washington State Class, you should do the homework for Washington.

NOTE FOR NEBRASKA STUDENTS

Students attending a class in Nebraska should complete the homework packets made for Nebraska, which can be found at teenpact.com/homework. Do not complete the homework below if you are attending the Nebraska State Class.

1 Review the vocabulary and questions from the Pre-Class Vocabulary List (pages 10-15).

- ★ All students will be responsible for this information on quizzes throughout the week. Alumni are not required to turn in the vocabulary and definitions.
- ★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class discussions.

HOMEWORK TIP

If you still have your homework from your first time at the Four Day Class, feel free to reference that as you complete the Pre-Class Vocabulary List.

2 Complete the State Political Fact Sheet (page 16) using resources on the internet and in your local library.

- ★ You may have to use several sources to get this information:
 - ★ Visit teenpact.com/find-a-class/ to find your state's official website.
 - ★ Open States (openstates.org) also has information on your elected officials.
- ★ If you are completing the homework before January 1, it is possible that some government seats may have changed because of recent elections. It is better to wait and complete the fact sheet after you are sure that all elections are over and the current officials are serving in their respective roles.
- ★ Purpose: To be informed regarding the current leaders and political trends in your state.

HOMEWORK TIP

Remember to complete the fact sheet according to your STATE government information, not federal. Don't be intimidated—it just takes a little patience! Make sure all of your information is up-to-date.

3

Send a letter to your state senator and state representative/delegate/assembly member (state, not federal), thanking them for serving and telling them about one issue or idea you think is important in your state.

- ★ Refer to the Sample Letter (page 17) when formatting your letters.
- ★ Need to know where to send the letters? Go to Open States (openstates.org) and search for your state (not federal) senator and state (not federal) representative, delegate, or assembly member.
- ★ Remember to check your grammar and spelling.
- ★ In everything, be respectful and address them with their proper titles (senator, representative, delegate, assemblymember, etc.).
- ★ Take time to pray for your elected officials by name before sending your letters.
- ★ Mail the letters at least two weeks before the class to ensure they arrive in time.
- ★ If preferred, it is also acceptable to send your letters with proper formatting via email.
- ★ Purpose: To experience how easy it is to communicate with your elected officials and to participate in the legislative process by making your opinions known.

HOMEWORK TIP

Consider asking questions about why they support a particular issue or what they hope to accomplish during their time in the legislature. Remember to write your state legislators, not federal.

4

Read or watch your governor's most recent State of the State Address. Create a list using the worksheet (page 18) of the issues addressed (three or more) by your governor in his/her speech.

- ★ You can usually find the speech on your governor's website under press releases or speeches. In some cases, you may have to call the governor's office and ask how to obtain a copy. If your governor was recently elected or hasn't given an address yet, use the last address available.
- ★ Purpose: To know the current issues in your state, as defined by your current governor.

HOMEWORK TIP

Keep these questions in mind while you read/watch the State of the State Address: how does this affect your state? What does this tell you about your governor's priorities? What key issues did he/she not address?

5

Write a one-page bill on an issue important to you and relevant to your state.

- ★ Please choose a serious topic for your bill. If you want to write an additional bill, you may write it on a serious or fun topic.
- ★ Refer to our Sample Bill (page 19) for the correct format when writing your bill.
- ★ Include at least five sections in your bill:
 1. The title
 2. The purpose
 3. The plan of action
 4. When the bill will take effect after becoming law
 5. How the bill will be funded
- ★ Please choose topics which are appropriate for the age and environment of the class.
- ★ Purpose: To develop a better understanding of the legislative process.

HOMEWORK TIP

Think outside the box about issues that will spark conversation between you and your peers. Be respectful and try to write your bill on a new topic that you haven't used before.

6

Complete the Forms of Government Fact Sheet (page 20).

- ★ Purpose: To prepare for in-class discussions about American government.

7

Complete the Constitutional Interpretations Analysis (page 21-22).

- ★ Purpose: To prepare for in-class discussions about the authority of the Constitution.

8

Alumni Track Preparation

On a hot summer day in 1776, John Hancock famously affixed his signature to the Declaration of Independence in Philadelphia. The Founders held that “Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.” By the time the Constitution of the United States was ratified in 1788, the American colonies had fully broken free from the English monarchy and established a new government, one that President Lincoln would later refer to as a “government of the people, by the people, for the people.”

This form of government was thought to be an experiment at first, but now it is understood that “the United States Constitution is the world’s longest surviving written charter of government.” This charter established a long-standing system of checks and balances between three branches of government in an attempt to limit that government and protect individual rights. But perhaps there is no more important check than this: voting by individuals in elections.

Voting is a foundational pillar of our democratic republic. It is an essential way that we influence our local community, our state, and our nation. Over the years, various suffrage movements have successfully secured the right to vote for women, people of color, and young adults ages 18 and older. What then is our responsibility as citizens of the United States coming of age as voters ourselves?

It has been said that “an enlightened citizenry is indispensable for the proper functioning of a republic.” To this end Thomas Jefferson once wrote, “Above all things I hope the education of the common people will be attended to, convinced that on their good sense we may rely with the most security for the preservation of a due degree of liberty.” Voting affords citizens the opportunity to influence government and society, but it is likewise a serious responsibility, worthy of your consideration.

This Alumni Track is designed to help you better understand the history and significance of your right to vote in the United States, and as you consider how you will vote, identify the biblical values that ought to guide you in making wise decisions as a voter. The following assignments will direct your pre-class study and prepare you for in-class sessions. Throughout the week you will dialogue with your Program Director and other Alumni Students about your research, participate in a survey to discover general public opinion on these issues, and discuss more of what it means to participate as a Christian and citizen of the United States through voting.

- ★ Write one (1) essay about the significance of the 24th Amendment and how it finally guaranteed the right to vote for all eligible citizens.
- ★ Write one (1) essay identifying three criteria you should use to evaluate the candidates for whom you vote.

HOMEWORK NOTE

Print two copies of each essay. You will keep one copy of each essay for your own reference and will be required to turn in one copy of each essay for grading. You will not be required to submit anything related to the terms or research sections of the Alumni Homework.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

The following assignment will give you a better understanding of the Four Day State Class and the fundamental ideas and strategies involved in the campaign process. While this assignment is not required, we do highly recommend that you complete it in preparation for the class.

9

Campaign Preparation

During the TeenPact week, we will hold class-wide elections for governor and senator. Once elected, these officials will have the distinct honor of representing the student body at graduation. During the week, every student will participate in elections in some capacity: candidate, campaign manager, grassroots activist, and voter. With so many options for participation, we recommend that you:

- ★ Develop a campaign slogan. Your slogan should be memorable for the other students. Think about your goal for the campaign. You can make your slogan quick and catchy, or a little more thought provoking. Your slogan will help the students remember who you are and understand your campaign. Choose wisely!
- ★ Write a short speech on why you might make a good governor or senator to represent your fellow students. During the class, you will have the opportunity to answer questions and convince the other students why you would represent the class well as their governor or senator. Think of a few reasons to present to the class, and you'll be that much more prepared.
- ★ Think about a favorite Bible verse or message you can share with your fellow students. This will help in preparation for your campaign, give clear reasons for why you are running, and help students connect with your candidacy.
- ★ Bring campaign supplies. Be creative with candy, signs, flyers, etc! Have fun thinking of ways to relate to your fellow students who will be voting in the election.
- ★ Read about campaigning. Understanding what a campaign looks like will help you as you participate in campaigning throughout the week. Review some historical campaigns and basic principles that made them successful. If you plan to run for office, think of ways you can build a campaign team and share with them what you learn in your research.
- ★ Purpose: To be prepared for in-class elections.
